Dear Mr. Chibani:

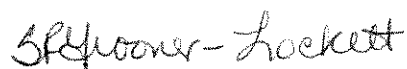

On behalf of The Juvenile Transition Center, Inc. staff, students and parents of the six graduating seniors, we would like to thank you for your generous donation of the Gateway Notebook computers. Our students were elated to receive them.

As you know having a computer is critical to the success of a college student. Your wonderful gift was the missing tool that our students needed to be prepared for this exciting and challenging journey.

We have every hope that with the support and encouragement that you've shown our students, several of them first generation college students, they will continue to be successful in their academics.

Again, thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Sheryl Groover-Lockett

First and foremost I would like to thank you for blessing me with a new laptop computer. Prior to receiving your gift I was using an almost obsolete desktop computer which was given to me by a close relative many moons ago. With my previous PC I experienced delayed responses and even unresponsiveness at times. In my current situation it would have been difficult for me to purchase a new PC on my own. Yet thanks to your selfless generosity I will now be able to perform all my school related tasks with swiftness and enhanced accuracy. I truly do appreciate the electronic notebook you have so kindly bestowed upon me and will take excellent care of it. God bless you.

Sincerely,

Dear Robert Hochberg, John Todd, & Saade Chibani,

Entering college is a great milestone that I'm dedicated to accomplishing in my life. Many obstacles occur when trying to obtain a post-secondary education. I will be pursuing my post-secondary learning at Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach Florida. This learning institution is private and tuition along with room & board is more expensive than the average state university. I've had many expenses during this transition. I sincerely thank you gentlemen for the gift; the blessing of providing me with a laptop. I wasn't sure if I was going to purchase a laptop, because they are very expensive.

I'll be majoring in English and I WILL be using the laptop on a daily basis. I understand the significance of an education. Your kindness and gift of giving has taken a load off of my mother & I. Please continue to help the road of obtaining an education smoother for other students as you all have done for me.

Thank you,

Tiffany Marshall

As a grasping leader of tomorrow, I can say that you have played one of the most important roles in my life. It brings enlighten to my soul to see how far a person will stretch themselves to help those in need of guidance and assistance. You have encouraged me to step up to the plate and make the winning point for the team.

Dear, Mr. Saade Chibani

Thank you so very much for your contribution to the Juvenile Transition Center. I desperately needed a personal computer for school, work, and managing my finances. My desktop is over 7 years old, it was a donation from my mother and father that I appreciate with all my heart but... it's a little archaic at this point in time. I am just barely able to complete my school assignments on time with the resources that my current machine provides and the laptop is very convenient and transferable. It also bestows upon I, a mere college student, an opportunity to modernize my technological understanding; which in turn will allow me to produce literary and illustrative works of a much greater and more profound caliber. I can't say thank you enough for your invaluable contribution, you've truly made my life much easier.

God Bless

To: Robert Hochberg, Saade Chibani, and John Todd,

My name is Kathrina Gaines, and I am a Juvenile Transition Center college student who will be attending Florida A & M University this fall. This summer I enrolled into summer classes at the university, and passed all of my classes to earn a 4.00 GPA.

When I was first accepted into the University of my Choice I had a list of worries; making a smooth transition from high school into college, leaving my mother, and things that I needed to help me exile in college. Now I can truly say that I am worry free.

Due to your generosity I would like to thank you for the Laptop that you have given me. Now I can take better notes on my laptop instead of hand written notes, log on to the internet so that I can email my mother, with this laptop I will be able to produce excellent projects, and research papers, also with this laptop I am able to type up this letter. It has and will continue to be of great assistance to me and my college career. Again thank you for giving me the opportunity to advance with today's technology.

Sincerely,

Kathrina Gaines

Dear Mr. Saade Chibani,

I would like to personally express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to you for the laptop that I was recently given. Your thoughtfulness and generosity have enabled me to be equipped with a tool that is sure to assist me with my future academic endeavors. I will now be able to connect to my university's Internet network, and this web-access will be of extreme value to my college success. With the support and assistance of community members like you, I am confident that my scholastic achievement will reach unimaginable heights.

Your gift is greatly appreciated and well-needed, and will be put to good use. Thank you once again for such a meaningful contribution.

Sincerely,
